

“Are things going to get better?

What a man sows that shall he also reap.”

A Nations Sin has physical, temporary, and spiritual, eternal, consequences.

Every sin by every person will be judged. Some will be judged in the righteousness of Jesus Christ unto eternal life. Many will die in their sins unto eternal damnation? The Lord alludes to this, in, Galatians 6:7-8:

Galatians 6:7-8 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. 8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

Sowing to the flesh does not mean eating of our earthly food, or the enjoying the many earthly blessings God creates for us; except if we worship these things as our ultimate source of comfort in place of the Spirit of God who is the believers Comfort (John 14:26).

Sowing to the Spirit happens when the Lord plants His living word in our heart and soul which He has chosen as good ground in Christ. We then daily meditate upon His Holy Word the Bible, which is the sword of the Spirit, with an attitude of obedience unto His righteousness, as we continually examine ourselves.

Ephesians 6:17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

Hebrews 4:12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

While, Galatians 6:7-8, is not teaching that man cannot enjoy the earthly things God has created for His physical well being, however, if we are worshipping these earthly blessings we are sowing to the flesh with a spiritual attitude that is contrary to the Wisdom of God. The Spirit of Christ purposely became liken unto sinful flesh to give us an example of how we are to walk physically and spiritually while on the sin cursed earth.

1 Peter 2:20-25 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. 21 For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: 23 Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: 24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. 25 For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

Some may say, “yes, that’s of the spiritual work we do; the flesh profits nothing!” While this is true, yet, this response often reveals an attitude where the words and deeds of man is totally unimportant, but God’s work only; as if the work His elect do is not ordained by the Spirit of Christ, so that they are ‘one flesh’, (Ephesians 5:31-32)! Too often many will not lift their little finger to practice what they so eloquently preach.

James 1:22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

Jas 2:26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

The idea that the elects works are meaningless is not biblical. This will have nothing to do with how the elect become saved. We can do NOTHING to acquire our own salvation! God alone must do the work of both justification and sanctification. However, if the elects works ordained of the Lord, (Ephesians 2:10), are meaningless how does God justify judging Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden after eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil? A physical work they performed which they were not commanded to do, but were commanded not to do in their tilling of the Garden? Second, how does God justify His own words, in, Revelation 14:13, regarding His chosen elect:

Revelation 14:13 ¶ And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

God’s word is very clear as we meditate upon it from the Holy Bible, that what we do in our earthly tabernacles on this sin cursed earth has everything to do with who we ultimately are in our soul and spirit. Therefore, Christ set the example how His elect are to speak and to walk?

In, John 3:11-12, we can see, in Nichodemus' words, how mankind, [the world], think and walk in themselves, according to their own understanding:

John 3:4, 11-12 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

Part of Jesus' answer to Nichodemus is according to God's understanding of mankind's inability in himself to see the things of the Spirit of God:

Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. 12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

Did God not come in the flesh (Isaiah 9:6)? Did not Jesus show how He was that Son of God (Mark 14:48-49)? When people fail to see or reject God's word God shows the physical application that's included in their rejection? In, John 6:66, as well as many other places in scripture, the Lord, physically and spiritually experienced this rejection personally:

John 6:64-66 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him. 65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. 66 From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

Those who walked no more with Jesus, who rejected Him, rejected Him spiritually and physically; so that Jesus, who was in the likeness of sinful flesh was Spiritually moved to ask:

John 6:67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

As Jesus is speaking these words was He not God, in the likeness of sinful flesh, humbly, purposely, submitting Himself to experience the same physical and spiritual suffering his elect were experiencing, (Romans 8:3-4), yet, while without sin! Those who physically walked away from Christ were revealing what had always been the condition of their spirit and soul. Minds that were not of Christ!

In time our integrated being of body, soul, and spirit, eventually reveals the condition of its spirit and soul, [mind]! It is in this context Jesus spoke to the Pharisee Nichodemus:

John 3:12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

Nichodemus had to have known man cannot physically go into his mothers womb a second time! How does he who is a master, [Pharisee], in the Old Testament law, justify not understanding what Jesus is saying to Him from the scripture?

While it should be common sense that a man cannot physically return to his mothers womb, it is not commonsense that man must be born again, until God might open the eyes that we perceive how we must be born from above (1 John 3:9).

But what does all of this have to do with whether things are going to get better? How were they for Jesus who should be our ultimate example? Is this life not the way the world has always been and continues to be until its destruction? Hasn't God already shown from His word, [the Old Testament], that when enough people are sowing sin to the flesh this accumulates a corruption that is inescapable and incurable; except God Himself steps in to stop His plague of judgment. But God will not over-rule the law of sowing and reaping; nor will He over-rule His preordained plan for this world's end! No different than Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, what we sow in this earth is what we shall also reap, physically, and, spiritually, except we be born again. But being born again we desire more and more to sow to the Spirit not the flesh! Clearly, today, in the societies of our world, from every nation, this is not even remotely what is happening; but a total lack of the fear of God!

The Devil and Satan have been let loosed:

The corporate world would certainly change this present reality if it could by casting off the bands of God's elect preaching of the true gospel. And this is what we're seeing today as the world is made to submit to the Elite Globalists who's objective is to save the planet by controlling how the populous use the earths materials. The new green world order. Then there's the Social Anarchists protesters and rioters who seek to reset society to their own will through fear and anarchy. They cannot show a plan for their new world, only a plan to destroy the one God would be in control of and not man. In this context, they create Chaos in order to maintain chaos in order to destroy the law and order and fear of God. Where would that power come from?

As antichrist's without law, much of the world now are desiring to redo the world according to a Godless social immoralism. It is total rejection of God's revealed word manifested by His physical creation, and His Spiritual Word the Holy Bible (Romans 1:18-20).

Next are the Race Hustlers who relentlessly assault people who exhibit light completion in their skin calling them white. Though Almighty God has created one human race, all of whom have equally fallen souls from Grace, (Romans 3:23), this evil crowd assigns everyone to an identity group giving themselves the freedom to legally discriminate to take the freedom from those they hate. After assigning these groups they accuse them of widespread sins because of who each individual is in the group, [which they created], according to ethnicity, not because of what each individual in the group have actually done themselves. We can know this is of the devil and Satan when these crowds attack any unity, any good will, any remnant of love, compassion, and forgiveness. They attack its foundation, tarring down statutes. They attack marriage. They attack the family. They attack the idea of Fathers, and mothers. They attack sexual normality between a man and a woman. Now where would that power come from? It comes from the devil and Satan!

Today all of these groups clearly expose the rising of 'Mystery Babylon The Great, The Mother of Harlots and Abominations of the Earth', (Revelation 17:5), as they capitalize on COVID19 as their leverage to get a world wide reset for their master who is the devil and Satan who seeks global domination before his soon end comes (Revelation 12:12). But it is God's Judgment! Satan is the hammer which God always has His Right Hand on! The only thing standing in the antichrist's way is the true church, [God's elect], in Jesus Christ, particularly as it is continually hinted of in the Declaration of Independence and U.S. Constitution – documents most American's have paid no attention to since the age of technology – which the enemy sees. In, 1967, the separation of church and state was easily passed, though it was based on a lie! Spiritually, the country as a whole was paying no attention, but to its new single family homes with running water, electricity, Frigidaire, gas & electric stoves, dishwashers, TV, and privately owned vehicles. The frosting on the cake: the new liberated expression many would find in rock and roll music.

It is in this context the church, most of it becoming apostate, would be ostracized, marginalized, down graded, and discredited, in time, which has been taking place as the founding documents of freedom to worship have been slowly changed as the people slept.

Too many Christian churches as they exist around the world, as well as those who profess allegiants to the Conservative party, are actually accommodating this effort to destroy their own nation through their gross apostasy to the true Christian faith in Jesus Christ. As they give the world no reason to fear the god of the bible which they misrepresent through their hypocritical words and chronic missing in action.

So does the world have any believable hope that shows how things can improve through the efforts of man? If we would carefully look at the necessary conditions for God to bless America, through the politicians, the policy makers, the media, the social leaders, the educators, [which began with the founders of 1776 who feared God]; today, however, the general population, including most of the Christian churches, and so called Conservatives, would only be offended by those necessary conditions. Conditions presently in the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution. So, the problem is, those who yell the loudest about their victimhood concerning these documents show themselves not to understand these documents as reflected in their own behavior. Today, other than the fact they propose to support conservative biblical world views, yet, in their behavior look and sound no different than the adversary! And so the antichrist who sees this sees a great opportunity to discredit and marginalize these documents to their destruction. So while it may be true, most professing Christians today will confess a desire for God to bless them according to the scriptures, yet, their expressed physical behavior is hardly in line with His Spiritual terms according to the scriptures. And therein lies the ultimate plague of our day.

“So are things going to get any better? The direct answer is, ‘No’! It can’t for one clear reason. What people sow they must also reap. Old Testament Israel was finally destroyed and condemned forever.”

Job 4:8 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

Matthew 21:19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

In our day there is so many people sowing sin to the flesh so that the harvest of corruption is too great to be reversed by any efforts of depraved sinful mankind. Except for God’s salvation we are slaves to unrighteousness. And of ourselves we have no power to change this condition; except we become born again, born from above (1 John 3:9). And praise God for that possibility!

But why should God stop His present wrath when He's clearly warned from His word how His kingdom does not include this sin cursed earth; but a New Heaven and a New Earth, (Isaiah 65:17)! He not also shown from all of scripture what this world would look like just before His second coming? Certainly these things cannot indicate another restoration! For God does not save nations! Even Nineveh was destroyed for unbelief some years after her earlier repentance! God does not save nations eternally, but His elect souls before the world began (Ephesians 1:4).

Those on both side of any isle who seek to restore the world, environmentally, socially, economically, morally, sexually, politically, are, in affect, trying to manifest a crop different than the one that is being sown. It is impossible that such a harvest can bare good fruit where corruption is primarily what is being sown! God's mercy and love never shows to exist where an outward physical and spiritual repentance doesn't follow His announcement of pending judgment.

America and the world have had that announcement of judgment from the Holy Bible since the first King James English manuscript of the Hebrew and Greek Bible! Yet, today, there is not the slightest indication of repentance coming from any of the world's nations, particularly America. Just look at the TV! Any of it! It is all corrupt and the American people with it. The world as a whole acts as if it has never heard of the gospel it once feared and sought after. Therefore, just as in the Garden of Eden following Adam and Eve's sin, God is not obligated to reinstate a warning and its end which He has already given if willingly ignored! A little sarcasm here to further the point:

"Oh, OK Eve. So the devil beguiled you. OK, let's get it clear next time then. And don't do it again. Your not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil."

Regarding this ludicrous statement above, according to God's Holy Word, the Lord who is perfectly Righteous, and True in Himself, who is eternally without sin, cannot condone nor abide in sin that He did not commit, but had lovingly warned against. Another way of saying the same thing: for the above statement, [of sarcasm], to be actually coming from God makes God out to be a liar! For God to now change His mind regarding His first warning to Adam and Eve must make God a sinner who's word is not believable, making the faith of Christ of none affect. This cannot be; but it is what the devil and Satan would have the world to believe, so that the world will believe Satan as being the Christ – who is rightfully called the Anti-Christ.

Subsequently, a foundational truth must unfold. The present governing of power of sin shall indeed exhibit, [temporarily], a great physical and spiritual harvest. It is, Mystery Babylon the Great, the Mother of Harlots and Abominations of the Earth, as God has now again warned from His word for those who have ears to hear. This is what the scripture clearly shows. And it will have come from what we are presently experiencing; the rapid sowing of corruption, and the reaping of destruction and death of the truths and morals of a nation that had previously been blessed and warned by its creator.

It is the death of a previously blessed nation who's population has all but ceased to grow beyond it's annual deaths. Why? Ask the millions and perhaps billions who have been aborted! Was not the God who had blessed this nation not watching? He has indeed been watching! So that the beast whom the Lord has now let loose can proclaim any nation to now enter its borders to take over its dying work force population, including the multitude of corrupt souls who, able, refuse to work. It is impossible for a nation that shows to be subdued by a world wide campaign of unrestrained sin, [as every nation is presently showing], to be reaping God's blessing let alone recovery; except, His wrath.

While this has been an horrible experience for me, I would, nevertheless, come to terms with this reality as being God's perfect will and good pleasure for our day, while in perpetual self-examination I would be sure who I am in the Lord before His program of mercy and truth suddenly, surprisingly, concludes and time is no longer (Revelation 10:6). In, Joshua 24:15, the word of God shows how Joshua's day was no different than our day, with the sole exception of a lesser amount of time remaining for the world:

Joshua 24:15 ¶ And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

The corrupt and apostate churches of our day now use such verses as, Joshua 24:15, to prove how mankind can choose for God's salvation; when this verse is saying nothing of the sort. History is merely repeating itself, but this time, as it repeats itself, it is simultaneously concluding the unfolding of the time line of history of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Is our day really any better than Joshua's day, than Jesus' day? We would remember, how, in, Joshua 24:15, Joshua, is speaking to his own people the Israelites, when he says, "whether the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites". Joshua is saying this because he saw how these were the choices the Israelites were making! Because it was evil for them to serve the true and living God, they were choosing to serve other god's! And that's where we are now in regards to every nation of the world, which are about to become united in a one world order where Satan is seating in the seat of authority; not only over the corporate church, but the corporate world as well.

Be that as it may, for Joshua and his house, [Joshua typifying Christ who is the bridegroom of His bride the elect], they will serve the LORD, according to the scriptures.

A nation that has for the past seventy years thrown the word of God behind its back cannot be showing the possibility of God's future blessing, but only His judgment and destruction as He has shown us throughout the Old Testament with National Israel:

Matthew 24:32-33 ¶ Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: 33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.
